Elaria

Il Sonno della Sposa, Ink on paper, 50x70 cm, 2024 ELARIA

Elaria is an artist living and working in Greece. She creates works in ink on watercolour paper, combining pure colour with metallic leaf and gold and silver inks. Alongside visual art, her creative practice encompasses literature and book design. Image, text and the structure of the book develop as distinct yet interconnected strands of her work. Elaria's works are held in private collections in Greece and Switzerland.

Elaria creates her own system of contemporary iconography. Her images embody forces, functions and states of being rather than serving as portraits or narrative characters. Working in ink on watercolour paper, she uses gold and silver as independent elements of her visual language. Pure colour, ornamental structure, decorative flatness and finely rendered details become meaning-bearing elements that reveal the inner nature of the image. Across her series, Elaria brings personal experience into dialogue with archetypal imagery, creating a mythology of her own in which invisible forces and structures take visible form.
